Becky Ullman

Director of Forward Planning

Becky Ullman Director of Forward Planning Becky Ullman joined Friendswood Development as Director of Forward Planning in June 2023. She has been involved in the land development and homebuilding industry for over forty years, working in a variety of jurisdictions with wide-ranging design, entitlement, and environmental hurdles. Her favorite area is the greater Houston market, with its unique challenges related to drainage, infrastructure, and utility district funding constraints. Becky has been married for 40 years to her husband Paul, and they enjoy traveling and barbecuing together.
