Hassan Sulehri is responsible for providing the leadership and management of the day-to-day operations of the Infrastructure Controls business unit, which is responsible for the development and management of key performance indicators and performance metrics to gauge the overall effectiveness of the division; Maintenance of project control measures to ensure projects are delivered on time, on budget and that meet quality expectations; Management of resources to assist the Asset Engineering and FAR139 Airfield Pavements Infrastructure business units in performing their primary objectives, and the supervision of invoicing and administrative support functions. Hassan graduated from Bellevue University with a Bachelor of Science degree in Project Management and Master of Business Administration with concentration in Accounting.